

City Begins Year Healthy

Aside from a few persons in the city. In the Torrance Health District, one case each of hepatitis, measles, and too-strenuous New Year's Eve, and Torrance started out the year in tip-top health, according to the County Health Department. During the first week of 1957, one case of whooping cough and one case of hepatitis and tuberculosis were reported.

Lomita Organizations Install Officers, Make Plans for 1957

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA. 6-0788

The Mens Fellowship of the Methodist Wayside Chapel combined an election of officers with a movie for their January meeting.

Ken Dalton was seated as president, James Shaheen as vice president, and Lynn Holland as secretary and treasurer.

Following the election the new officers and Fellowship members viewed a film, "Sound of a Stone," depicting rumors being magnified. After the showing, the group was served refreshments under the chairmanship of Mrs. Chaney Tillman.

The next meeting of the Mens Fellowship will be Feb. 8 at the church. Slated for then will be a talk by a police officer entitled, "The Phone Book, the Catalog, or the Bible," dealing with juvenile delinquency.

Mrs. Clair Laird is the new president of the Job Daughters Mothers Club. She replaces Virginia Basile. Joan Sickinger was elected vice president.

After the meeting, held in the Sickinger home, Mrs. Mulhern helped serve refreshments.

The next meeting will be Feb. 6 in the Peter Jacobelly residence at 26322 Athena Ave., Harbor City, beginning at 8 p.m. Co-hostess will be Pearl Washburn.

The 259th Pl. PTA Executive Board has completed plans for a "come and go" brunch to be held Jan. 24 at the home of Mrs. Dan Bowling, 26200 Governor Ave., Harbor City.

Waffles, with homemade jams, hot syrup, and juice and coffee will be served between 9:30 and 1 o'clock. The public is invited, and will be served by members of the executive board. Other members will help in the cooking.

It was announced at the board meeting the regular association meeting will be held at 2 p.m. today in the school auditorium. Guest speaker will be Pat Turner, boys vice principal from Narbonne High School. The graduating A6 class, 28 in all, will be individually introduced and will participate in the program. Refreshments will be served, by the hostesses, the B-6 and A-6 room mothers.

Following the board meeting, which was held in the home of Mrs. D. E. Dunn, the Founders Day program committee held a meeting. Refreshments were served with the aid of the co-hostess, Mrs. Palmer Orseth.

Rebekah Lodge, Trio 240, installed new officers amid rainbows and chrysanthemums in the California Hall on the ninth.

Gertrude Castrup was presented the noble grand gavel by her two granddaughters. Esther Hansen was seated as vice grand; Edith Marriot, recording secretary; Hattie Schroeder, financial secretary; Elizabeth Verton, treasurer; and Mary Smith, publicity. The work was done by the installing staff from District 26.

After witnessing the installation the Rebekah members and 160 guests were served refreshments at tables decorated with rainbows. Between each was a staff of music inscribed with "Somewhere over the rainbow."

The noble grand and vice grand station carried out the theme with two large bouquets of chrysanthemums. Behind the station was a huge rainbow ending in two pots of gold.

Mary Smith, noble grand of 1956, was committee chairman for the successful installation.

Thirty-seven members were present for the Friendship Circle meeting of the Methodist Church on the ninth. The group was served a hot lunch after which the parents of Rev. Howard Rosine showed films of Mexico.

Hostess for the meeting was Flossie Bleakly. Her co-hostesses were Nora Christensen, Ada Cross, and Neva Koppe.

The Friendship Circle, a social activity for the elder members of the Wayside Chapel, will hold its next meeting at the church on Feb. 13. Hostess will be Zella Butterfield. Helping her will be Eva Hutchinson and Harriet Quibbele.

The Kiwanis Club held an installation of officers at the newly opened Plush Horse. Installed by Clyde Walker, lieutenant governor of Division 19, was Don Bowker as president. Tom Hinkley is first vice president and Henry A. Goetals Jr. is second vice president. David Wilkinson was installed as secretary and Robert Block as treasurer.

At the Jan. 15 meeting, the new officers assigned members to various committees. H. P. Osburn Sr. gave a talk on Kiwanis education. E. E. Myer spoke on attendance and membership and Glen Keith talked on inner-club relations.

New Job Daughters were installed by Bethel 137 officers in the presence of Edna Babcock, official deputy grand guardian.

Twenty-three girls became Job Daughters to the theme of candy canes and paper hearts. New Jobs are Judith Scott, Theresa Grohs, Carol Walker, Marie Gordon, Linda Lou Bethune, Radme Walt, Donna Willoughby, Janine Parsons, Wendy Webb, Kathleen Anderson, Jo Dean Fairchild, Susan Sickenger, Judith Braddock, Adele Leino, Linda Franco, Burma Martin, Sheryl Bliss, Sandy Freeman, Sandra Long, Sophie Gluskak, Joyce Robinson, Linda Rinquist, and Vickie Long. All the girls wore pink, peppermint, and white carnations.

Nita Bourland entertained with a piano solo. The evening was supervised by Mrs. Virginia Basile and Mrs. Thomas. Jobs helping were Frances McKay, Merrill Mince, Carol Davis, Linda Franco and Poly Basile.

The press chairman, Sharon Brown, announced a special choir practice will be held today at the Masonic Temple to practice their Easter selections. Following the choir practice the girls planning to go to Wawona Lodge at Big Bear this weekend will meet and discuss more fully the plans now under way.

Here's a little personal item about the Bruce Carlsons' boy, Jeffery. During their weekend in Snow Valley, Jeff tried out skis for the first time. His father, president of the Snow Valley Ski Club, was quite proud of the ease and grace with which Jeff took to the skis.

Rev. Howard Rosine of the Wayside Chapel will discuss "How Can We Make God's Name Holy" Sunday. That evening, the School of Mission will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 at the church. Scheduled for Tuesday night is the Methodist Youth Fellowship visits to inactive members. A prayer meeting will be held the same day at 9:30 a.m. The MYF prayer meeting is slated to begin at 6:30 Wednesday, followed by a choir practice. A general meeting of the Women's Society for Christian Service will be held next Thursday. The same night at 7:30, the Wayside Chapel Choir will rehearse.

Marvella Geurin, president of the Opti-Mrs. Club, said the club had recently outfitted a boy graduating from the Optimists Boys Home in Los Angeles.

The Opti-Mrs. will meet next in the home of Evelyn Dollarhide, 25515 Lucille Ave., Lomita, on Feb. 12.

Members of the 259th Place PTA executive board met on Thursday to discuss and decide on several issues, one of which will be whether the mothers will form a "March of Mothers" during the March of Dimes to begin Jan. 31.

During the Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council, each school was asked to submit a letter to the Board of Education in protest of the recent ban on snow cones and cotton candy which, until lately, have been sold at carnivals and other entertainments.

Those present at the council heard plans for the Founders Day, program from Mrs. D. E. Dunn, chairman. The program is slated for Feb. 21. Also heard at the meeting was Mrs. R. A. Stalmack, child welfare chairman, who gave a brief outline on the association meeting to deal with problems in this field. This meeting is slated for Jan. 17.

Rev. James E. Burnett has recently been called as associate pastor for the Western Ave. Baptist Church.

Rev. Burnett, who will work with the youth of the church, came from the Flysian Park Baptist Church in Los Angeles. His schooling has nearly all been in Southern California. The reverend attended schools in Lindsey in the San Joaquin Valley, took his AB Degree from the Los Angeles State College, and is a graduate from the California Baptist Church Seminary in Covina.

The Rev. Burnett announced that the Baptist Youth Fellowship will take over the evening services beginning Jan. 27. Other activities of the young people will include participation in the monthly community sing to take place the 20th. The BYF is also planning a hayride.

Recently the BYF heard a talk from Dr. Carol Jamerson from Vellore, India. Dr. Jamerson, one of the pioneer missionaries in the medical and hospital work being done there, showed pictures of the hospital and the results of the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Beauford Willette and children, from Eugene, Ore, spent two weeks in Lomita visiting with their aunt and uncle, the senior C. M. Brumbelows of 24208 Alleliene Ave. The Willettes also visited relatives in Los Angeles, and spent some time with the Peuce family in Lomita.
